INTERESTED IN COMPUTERS AND LIFE SCIENCE?

You could earn up to $20,000 per year in scholarships and research stipends.

Machine learning and computer modeling are changing the face of medicine. The next breakthroughs will require scientists and innovators eager to tackle hard problems around human health.

LEARN MORE TODAY!

NKU | COLLEGE OF Informatics

nku.edu/informatics

- Do you plan to major in computer science or data science?
- Would you like to complete a minor or second major in a life science such as biology or neuroscience?
- Do you want to apply your computational skills to create medical breakthroughs by pursuing a doctorate in biomedical research after graduation?
- High school students: Do you have an ACT score of at least 29 and high school GPA of at least 3.75?
- Continuing NKU students: Do you have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.75 and the recommendation of a professor in data or computer science?

CONTACT US FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE L.I.F.E. FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM!

CONTACT

Maureen Doyle
(859) 572-5468
doylem3@nku.edu

NKU | COLLEGE OF Informatics

nku.edu/informatics